

Media Advisory

Contact Information:

Jon Bargas
Manager of Communications, IPAMS
(303) 623-0987
jbargas@ipams.org

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
December 07, 2007

IPAMS to Host 2008 National Legislative Preview

How the 2008 Presidential Race will Shape Energy Policy

(DENVER) – On Wednesday, December 12, 2007, the Independent Petroleum Association of Mountain States (IPAMS) will hold a 2008 National Legislative Preview to discuss recent and anticipated energy legislation and how the 2008 presidential race will affect the energy industry in the Intermountain West. The event will be from 12:30pm – 2:00pm on December 12, 2007 at the Denver Athletic Club.

Who: Governor Richard Lamm will be the keynote speaker, and Floyd Ciruli, political commentator and pollster, will be presenting the results of his polling on how much economic cost consumers are willing to bear to reduce global warming. Tim Stewart, IPAMS Washington representative, will give an update on HR 6, the Energy Independence and Security Act of 2007.

What: Preview of how the 2008 Presidential Race will shape energy policy.

When: Wednesday, December 12, 2007
12:30pm-2:00pm

Where: Denver Athletic Club
1325 Glenarm St.
Denver, Colorado 80202

###

About IPAMS

IPAMS, founded in 1974, is a non-profit trade association representing more than 400 independent oil and natural gas producers, service and supply companies, banking and financial institutions and industry consultants committed to environmentally responsible energy development in the Intermountain West. More information on IPAMS and its members is available at www.ipams.org.